

Newsflash 1

Contributed by Administrator
 Monday, 09 August 2004
 Last Updated Thursday, 28 February 2008

Live Coverage - Feb. 28, 2008 President Amin Gemayel's Press Conference

1:30 pm Gemayel considers veto demands by the opposition are a coup against the government.
 1:25 pm Phalange party leader: The opposition's aim is to have veto power because it wants to impair the Lebanese system.
 1:24 pm Gemayel: We are committed to the election of Army chief Gen. Michel Suleiman president
 1:18 pm Gemayel: Aoun insists on returning to the 1960 law which we think could not be implemented these days
 1:15 pm Gemayel: We are with a fair electoral law that best fits the country.
 1:10 pm Gemayel: On the issue of the displaced, we have insisted that the issue be a top priority in the next government and we have asked Arab help in this respect.
 1:05 pm Gemayel: I hope the correct minutes of the (quartet) meetings will be published because information leaked is utterly false.
 1:00 pm Gemayel: The opposition wants to waste time and each time we agree on a demand it sets a new one.

Live Coverage - Feb. 27, 2008 MP George Edwan Interview

10:51 Edwan interview ended
 10:50 March 14 Alliance wants to reach a settlement but not on the expense of Taef constitution and building the state institutions, Edwan concluded
 10:47 There is no sign that a president would be elected soon , Edwan said
 10:45 Edwan said that no one can influence the International Tribunal
 * 10:35 Lebanese citizen Suleiman Ahmed Suleiman was injured when a bomb exploded near al-Shhabiyeh mosque, east Tyre, Future TV reported.
 10:32 Edwan said that 1960 elections Law doesn't secure fair parliamentary representation of the Christians
 10:30 We support an election law that insures fair representation in the parliament for Muslims and Christians, Edwan added
 10:25 At least half the Christian MPs in the parliament would not be elected by Christians anymore if the 1960 election law is adopted, Edwan said
 10:06 We must not miss any opportunity to elect a president, Edwan said
 10:02 As long as there is hope for reaching a settlement we will not elect a president by simple majority , Edwan stressed
 10:02 As long as there is hope for reaching a settlement we will not elect a president by simple majority , Edwan stressed
 9:56 Resorting to violence will not yield fruitful results, Edwan added
 9:50 Syria must accept sovereign Lebanon in return for good relations with Arabs and Lebanese, Edwan said
 9:45 Resorting to al-Taef agreement is the only solution to the ongoing political impasse, Edwan pointed out
 9:38 Edwan warned against electing a president after reaching an agreement on the oppositions' "basket" of demands because it would set a dangerous precedent in the Lebanese history
 9:30 Edwan expressed his hope that the judiciary would yield convictions in Chiah riots' case as soon as possible
 9:28 We want best relations with Syria provided that it recognizes Lebanon as an independent state, Edwan added
 9:27 Edwan said that Speaker Berri nominated Army Commander Gen. Michel Suleiman for president during his discussions with MP Saad Hariri
 9:20 Edwan added that only the presence of a strong state in Lebanon can lead us to victory against Israel
 9:18 No faction in Lebanon is capable of determining solely the destiny of the Lebanese, Edwan said
 9:14 The current crisis has reflections that go past the Lebanese situation, Edwan added
 9:09 Edwan said that dialogue among the Lebanese is the only way to reach a solution
 9:08 Communications with FPM has never stopped despite disagreements, Edwan stressed 9:00 MP George Edwan's Interview aired.