Phares Address: "Lebanon's Parliamentary Majority failed in the past, it need to explain how would it succeed in the future?"

Walid Phares third address via CR News radio from Washington DC: "Lebanon's Parliamentary Majority failed in the past, it need to explain how would it succeed in the future if it retain itself in the next legislative elections? When it was able to call for UN intervention it failed. How will its agenda be different in 2009 if it is successful? Lebanon's civil society which granted them full trust is awaiting answers."
