

Syrian authorities shoot three terrorist suspects dead

Contributed by DPA
Thursday, 09 October 2008

Damascus - Three armed terrorism suspects were shot dead Thursday by Syrian forces in a Palestinian refugee camp south of Damascus, witnesses told Deutsche Presse-Agentur dpa. One member of Syria's security forces was injured in the attack, which took place in the Yarmouk refugee camp, south of Damascus.

Terrorists recently struck at a road near the Damascus airport. Some 17 people were killed and another 14 were injured in the September 27 attack.