

Obama, having won the Jewish vote, sends PLO-supporter Robert Malley to Syria

Contributed by <http://smoothstoneblog.com/author/admin>
Tuesday, 25 November 2008

The Obama pattern of deception continues. Remember how earlier in Obama's campaign, Obama withdrew Robert Malley's as his hand-picked foreign policy adviser?

Obama didn't want to lose his Jewish vote bloc. As we all know, most Jews predictably vote Democrat out of some sort of loyalty to Roosevelt, even before anyone knew that Roosevelt himself turned back shiploads of Jews fleeing the Nazi ovens, but that's for another post. Now that Obama has won the Jewish vote, he has re-hired Robert Malley.

Robert Malley advocates negotiations with Hamas and providing international assistance to the terrorist group.

Malley has written numerous opinion articles, many of them co-written with a former adviser to the mass murderer Yasser Arafat, petitioning for "dialogue" with Hamas and blasting Israel for harming "the Palestinian cause".

Robert Malley was raised in France. His father, Simon Malley (1923-2006), was a key figure in the Egyptian Communist Party. A passionate hater of Israel, the elder Malley was a close friend and confidante of the late PLO terrorist Yasser Arafat; an inveterate critic of "Western imperialism"; a supporter of various revolutionary "liberation movements," particularly the Palestinian cause; a beneficiary of Soviet funding; and a supporter of the 1979 Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

According to American Thinker news editor Ed Lasky, Simon Malley "participated in the wave of anti-imperialist and nationalist ideology that was sweeping the Third World [and] . wrote thousands of words in support of struggle against Western nations."

<http://smoothstoneblog.com/2008/11/>

obama-having-won-the-jewish-vote-sends-plo-supporter-robert-malley-to-syria.htm