On the reason Hezbollah is pushing back against March 14 Movement.

Joe Baini, President of the World Council for the Cedars Revolution said the reason Hezbollah is pushing back against March 14 Movement, is because of the fact that the results of the May 7, 2008 Beirut invasion were never condemned and investigated. By accepting the de facto victory of Hezbollah on the ground and rushing to Doha to settle, March 14 had lost to Hezbollah strategically. That's the real equation since.
