Progressive Socialist Party leader MP Walid Jumblat met the leader of the Syrian Social Nationalist Party leader MP Asaad Hardan on Monday night at a common friend's house. The meeting was also attended by PSP's MP Akram Chehayeb.

A statement issued by the Progressive Socialist Party said: "The Jumblat-Hardan meeting discussed the common struggle and political stages of the two parties facing the Israeli occupation and terminating the May 17 accord, in addition to the current political developments."

Previously, Jumblat met ex-Minister Wiam Wahab in Clemenceau where the two men discussed the latest developments.
