

Dr Phares interviews on US and Lebanon under Hezbollah

Contributed by Mideast Newswire, Washington DC
Wednesday, 16 December 2009

Dr Walid Phares, advisor to the US House Caucus on Counter Terrorism gave several interviews on the US position on Lebanon in the wake of President Michel Sleiman's visit to the White House and his meeting with President Barack Obama.

Phares on France 24 TV Arabic: "A majority in Congress won't arm a Lebanese Government controlled by Hezbollah"

Commenting on the visit of Lebanese President to Washington and his meeting with President Obama Professor Walid Phares told France 24 TV in Arabic: "A majority in Congress is opposed to strategically support a Lebanese Government controlled by Hezbollah." [Visit Website]

Phares on al Mustaqbal TV: "The US cannot strategically support Lebanon's forces with Hezbollah in the Government"

Professor Walid Phares to al Mustaqbal TV on Lebanese President meeting with President Obama: "The US cannot strategically support Lebanon's armed forces with a dominant Hezbollah in the Government." [Visit Website] (Short Segment of the Interview)

Phares on Nothing but Truth: "Hezbollah controls Lebanon since 2008"

Professor Walid Phares on radio show Nothing but Truth with Steve Schippert: "Hezbollah controls Lebanon since 2008, the Cedars Revolution on the defensive." [Visit Website]