

WCCR Press Release - Syrian Revolution

Contributed by CRNews
Monday, 28 March 2011

The Syrian people are openly and peacefully expressing their desires for democracy. They are being confronted by force, killings have taken place, the Syrian people deserve an open society to express their viewpoints without retribution, free elections to elect a democratic government that represents the will of the majority of the people. The WCCR stands for Democracy in Lebanon and wishes the same for the region, peaceful coexistence amongst democratic nations that give security, hope and opportunity to their people.

Download the WCCR Press Release on its support for the Syrian People [HERE]