TEHRAN (Fars News Agency)- Secretary General of Iran's Hezbollah underlined the group's full preparedness to confront the US, saying that Hezbollah is ready to fight back against the US fearlessly.

"We neither welcome nor fear war with the United States, but we are fully ready for confrontation with the US," Mohammad Baqer Kharrazi told a meeting of Hezbollah in the northeastern city of Mashad on Sunday.

"In case of US invasion, Hezbollah's commandos will strike at the United States' worldwide interests no matter where they are or what form or position they might have," he reiterated.
